A PROTRACTED FAST.

REMARKABLE CASE OF SELF-STANDARD STRANGE HALLELUJAHISM OF A Young Woman of Reading, Pa. (Special to the Cincinnati Enquirer.)

The strange fasting of Miss Sarah Root, aged twenty-eight, of this city, is attracting unusual attention, not only among the medical fraternity, but among the public generally. She is a tall young lady, with dark hair and dark eyes, and of excellent character. A few years ago Miss Root was an acknowledged belle. She dressed in excellent good taste and always made a very fashionable appearance.

Suddenly she became very devout and pious. Her attendance at Rev. Dr. Schmucker's St. James Lutheran congregation was almost constant.

She became deeply interested in Sunday school affairs, and up to last Fourth of July was in good health. She then discontinued eating and commenced a long period of fasting. From July 4th to the 11th she ate but a few times. Then she stopped eating altogether.

On the 14th of July Dr. T. R. Schmucker was called in. Miss Root turned her back, and said she was not in need of his professional attention.

She persistently refused to take any nourishment, and throughout all the hot spell she drank no water. Finally she was threatened that food would be administered to her by force.

She was growing pale, thin and emaciated. Her former rosy cheeks had faded, the sparkle had left her eyes, and she became moody, thoughtful and silent.

She became frightened at the doctor's threat, and taking an ordinary cracker she held it under the hydrant and thoroughly washed it. On the 18th of July she ate that cracker, but took no other nourishment.

Dr. Schmucker undertook to convince her that it was her religious duty to eat, and not kill herself; that instead of it being her religious duty to fast, she was slowly committing the great crime of suicide.

She paid no attention to this. Basin after basin of water was used in bathing her hands. First she filled a basin of pure water and washed her hands; then she would get another basinful and again wash her hands. She would continue this washing for a half hour.

She has been known to have spent five hours on her knees reading the Bible and praying. She had a dream to "fast forty days and forty nights, as Christ did in the wilderness," she said.

All the efforts of her mother and sister failed to induce her to eat and drink. Finally, Dr. Schmucker says he stopped calling on her, because he could do nothing for her. Dr. Martin Luther was next called in. Miss Root was very weak, but still able to be about. She persistently refused to eat or drink, and her people thought she was dying. It was finally resolved to resort to force in the matter, and a spoon was inserted in her mouth between her teeth. Nothing could be done, because she would not swallow.

When her nostrils were held shut, she breathed through the interstices of her teeth, but would not swallow. Finally Dr. Luther inserted a silver tube through her nostrils and injected gruel and milk into the gutlet, and thence into the stomach. Only a small quantity was injected. The membranous lining of the stomach was greatly inflamed, and too much food administered would have killed her instantly.

The young woman is now being kept alive by forcing food through her nostrils into her stomach. She is laboring under a religious hallucination, and fears are entertained that she cannot live long. She is said to be quite intelligent, and she has no fears, saying that she guesses it will end all right. To-day she made no resistance to the tube being inserted in her nose, but she positively refused to take any food or water.

KANSAS TO THE FRONT!

The Landing Wheat State is the Union in 1879, and the Fourth Corn State. The Great Kansas Harvest in 1878 was sold for the "Golden Era."

The celebrated Grain Belt to country, in the limestone section of Central Kansas, traversed by the Kansas Pacific.

The following statement are taken from the report of the Kansas state board of agriculture for 1878.

WHEAT. Kansas is from the Eleventh Wheat State in 1877 to the First Wheat State in 1879, producing 26,589,958 bushels winter wheat, and 5,795,403 bushels spring wheat; total, 32,315,361.

Bushels Wheat, with only one-eighth of the state under cultivation. The organ 220 counties lying in the Golden Wheat Belt of the Kansas Pacific produced 13,335,324 bushels, or over 41 percent, and including unreported counties, probably 14,000,000 bushels, or 42 percent of the entire yield of the state, with an equally grand showing in all other departments of agriculture.

The foregoing facts show conclusively why we have

29 percent of the increase in population in the state during the past four years; and 40 percent of the increase in the population during the past year; and 42 percent of the increased acreage of wheat in the state in 1878, belonged to the "Golden Belt."

A very important question to be settled in connection with the water works is the kind of power to be used. The commissioners say: "The cost of raising by water power will average under two cents per million gallons, raised one foot high, as appears from the report of the committee on Water Works of the Legislature, and at the Montreal water works." As will be seen by the above table the cost by steam would be 14 cents, being a proportion of 7 to 1. The saving, at this proportion, in pumping 1% million gallons of water (and nothing for extra fire pressure) will average 40 per day. At Saratoga Springs, N. Y., the saving in pumping by water power is $20 per day.

This difference in favor of pumping by water power, moreover, is dependent on the greater the quantity of water pumped." To use the words of Mr. Keeler, engineer of the Montreal works: "Every additional gallon of water elevated, and every additional foot it is lifted by steam, has to be paid for over the counter."

Mr. Williams, I think, overestimated the saving by water power.

Forty dollars per day would be $14,-

600 per year, and I hardly think it would cost that much to do the pumping system, therefore the saving must be less. However, Mr. Williams is such a distinguished authority upon such subjects that it is with great hesitation I venture to differ from him.

A VERY important question to be settled in connection with the water works is the kind of power to be used for pumping. A saving of a few thousand dollars a year in the running expenses of the works, if it can be brought about, is of the utmost importance. So far as the SENTINEL is concerned it is entirely indifferent as to the kind of power to be used, providing that the greatest possible saving is effected to the city. It believes that all the information possible on the subject should be laid before the people, and especially the council and water works board, to the end that the city's interests may be studied in the final determination of this matter.

WATER WORKS.

The Relative Advantages of the Steam and Water Power—What Hon. Jesse L. Williams Says—Leading Citizens in Favor of Water Power.

To the Editor of the SENTINEL:

A so-called newspaper of this city, which now foams at the mouth at every suggestion of the use of water power for pumping purposes, once denounced, in terms as strong as the English language would admit, the councilmen who opposed the purchase of the canal for this purpose, and commended just as strongly Councilmen Grafe, Hogan, Dewald, McLean, Munson, Putnam and Wilson, who voted to buy it.

If there is any good reason why water power was desirable four years ago and is undesirable now, perhaps this alleged newspaper will mention it. The people are seeking for information, and will gladly accept it from any source.

About the same time the council was petitioned to buy the canal that it might have water power for use in its water works. Among the names signed to the petition were T. B. Hedrick, B. D. Miner, Pliny Hoagland, Fred Eckart, JESSE L. WILLIAMS, John M. Miller, John W. Vordermark, Thomas J. Meegan, Carnahan, Hanna & Co., John Orff, H. N. Ward, S. Bush, Henry Monning, Chas. McCulloch, A. D. Brandiff, Meyer Bros. & Co., E. P. Williams, and in fact nearly every business man in the city.

Most of the above named gentlemen are noted for their clear, common sense, good judgment and fine business capacity. The fact that they regarded water power as so essential can but have weight with the people in their search for knowledge on this subject. However, I do not consider those gentlemen infallible, or their judgment conclusive. It is possible that all of them were badly mistaken on the subject, and that there was, in fact, no good reason for the city desiring to own a water power for her water works.

The Hon. JESSE L. WILLIAMS, however, spoke as one with authority. He was popularly supposed to know what he was talking about. He sent a communication to the council, in 1875, prepared, as he said, during the leisure of a year from which I take the following:

In preparing this paper, I have considered the economy of substituting water power for steam at the pumping station. At present we have no steam. We take advantage of every turn we can get to use water, and I am informed there is as yet no water power. If we do not take advantage of every turn we can get to use water, and I am informed there is as yet no water power. If we do not even with twenty miles of pipe, and more of course as more water is pumped.

At Saratoga the agent in charge told me they pumped by water power about half the time at a saving of $15 per day.

At Lafayette the city proposes to pump by water power. They estimate a saving of $5,000 per annum.

I have also learned that at several points where both steam and water power alternately, the saving is rated at $25 to $30 per day when the works requires horse power. The owners of a flouring mill at New Haven, Conn., who recently informs me that they save $80 per day when the water power. The owner of the wooden mill at Fort Wayne, running twenty-four hours, says $10 in that time.

Water power, with Turbine wheel, with two-shaft head, would be the rule, steam the exception.

The turbine wheel that would be required would be of iron, and cost $1,000 to $1,500 to pump 2,000,000 or 2,500,000 gallons daily; and one of double that capacity in case of fire. For this reason Mr. Williams' opinion becomes an indispensable auxiliary in furnishing the water power for pumping, thus saving the large expense of steam. The city, however, can not afford to be satisfied with a "general, with whom ever may own the work."

In September of the same year, Mr. Williams, being at Saratoga, sent a second letter to the council from which the following extract is taken:

ECONOMY OF WATER.

Further light on the amount saved by the use of water power shows that the saving heretofore has been underrated, and should be my judgment determine the city to the best interest.

The last annual report of the board of water commissioners of the city of Springfield, Mass., for 1878, makes a comparative statement, embracing the cost of both water and steam at eight different pumping works and in three successive years, which table I here insert:

COST OF PUMPING BY STEAM 1,000,000 GALLONS, ONE FOOT HIGH.
NAME OF WORKS	APPROX. IN IN SEC.	PUMPING INTO STANDPIPE.	COST IN $1000.	AVERAGE COST IN $1000.	IN CTS.	IN CENTS.

A. Ward, who was under arrest on a similar charge, obtained his release on a plea of ill health.

There are now in Thessaly, Epirus and Macedonia 90,000 Turkish troops, exclusive of artillery and cavalry. These, together with the forces at Adrianople and Constantinople, and in Albania, make an army of 860,000 men in European Turkey, more than would be required to deal with Greece in the event of war, but the probable consequences of a rupture are not to be estimated by the number of troops.

Information has been received by the Canadian government, from the northwest territory, to the effect that the buffalo have recrossed into the Canadian territory. Over 5,000 American Indians, including Sitting Bull, are encamped on that side of the line. The rumor that the Canadian government intends applying to the United States government for permission for Canadian Indians to hunt on this side of the line is without foundation.

Mr. Bingham, United States minister to Japan, informs the department of state that the export duties on the following articles have been removed: Cotton and silk manufactures, made dresses, porcelain ware, bronzes, manufactured bamboo, manufactured copper, paper fans and umbrellas. Whenever export duty shall be imposed notice will be given. It is predicted that all export duties in Japan will soon be abolished. A proportionate increase of import duties is also expected.

THE RAILROADS.

Five hundred new box cars for the Wabash have recently been built at Detroit.

An excursion party from Allegan, filling eight coaches, went to Ronne City yesterday.

The Pittsburgh car shops in this city are furnishing an average of 200 grain doors a day for cars loading with wheat.

An average of ten cars of lumber a day is ground up into new rolling stock at the Pittsburgh car shops in this city.

Freight traffic on the Pittsburgh is improving. During last twelve hours twenty-seven freights, mostly live stock, arrived in this city.

Twelve of twenty-five refrigerator cars for the Union Line Transportation Company have just been completed at the Pittsburgh car shops in this city. The remainder will shortly be finished.

A sawdust and shaving fan has been erected in the Pittsburgh car shops in this city which carries off all the dust and shavings from the machines, thus clearing the air and saving the labor of ten men to remove it. The refuse is carried out into a "Zulu kral" standing in the yard which is a unique piece of architecture.

The "Muskegan" in Auld Lang Syne.

Among many other interesting items, Messrs Kingman, in their research for historical data—have mined from the dusty old archives of Allen county, the record of organization of the first fire company in the corporation of Fort Wayne, in August 1839.

Enunciating some of the few surviving members we have Hugh McCulloch, Jesse L. Williams, M. W. Hubbell (now of Toledo) Peter Kiser, Robert E. Fleming, J. D. Nuttman and Theodore K. Brackenridge. It is a query how that crowd would enjoy "running with the machine" now? Other familiar names of citizens since deceased, could be added to the list, among them Francis Compart, B. Dubois, John Spencer, Robert Brackenridge, Jr., H. J. Dawson, G. W. Wood, W. S. Edsall, Samuel Edsall, Wm. Rockhill and P. G. Jones.

STATE NEWS.

Among many other interesting items, Messrs Kingman, in their research for historical data—have mined from the dusty old archives of Allen county, the record of organization of the first fire company in the corporation of Fort Wayne, in August, 1839.

Enumerating some of the few surviving members we have Hugh McCarville, an old citizen of Marshall county, was driving along a country road, near Bourbon, some ruffians beat him and threw stones at him and his horses. The horses became frightened and running away, threw the old gentleman out, seriously injuring him. It is supposed some old grudge was the cause of it.

About ten days ago there was a temperance picnic in the neighborhood of Elizabeth, Harrison county, and a most enjoyable time was had, everything passing off pleasantly. On Tuesday another picnic was held near the same town, and it seems that those who attended it were not enthusiastic workers in the temperance movement; it also appears that the crowd in attendance demolished a good deal of hard cider and when the cider began to get uneasy in the abdominal regions of the crowd, they began pummelling each other with a vengeance. A man named Payne and another, whose name is unknown, had their Paytes inspected by clubs in the hands of others in the crowd. Several others were more or less injured.

On Monday forenoon as George Carlisle, an old citizen of Marshall county, was driving along a country road, near Bourbon, some ruffians beat him and threw stones at him and his horses. The horses became frightened and running away, threw the old gentleman out, seriously injuring him. It is supposed some old grudge was the cause of it.

Paul Miller, a well-to-do shoemaker of Jeffersonville, took his brother-in-law, Horatio B. McCarty, in and kept him four weeks, he being out of money and having no work. Sometime night McCarty chloroformed Miller and robbed him of his clothes, a new pair of boots and $21 in money, and departed.

On Monday forenoon as George Carlisle, an old citizen of Marshall county, was driving along a country road, near Bourbon, some ruffians beat him and threw stones at him and his horses. FORT WAYNE, IND.MEDICAL MODICS.*Another Staff Factory Started in This City.*An Imposing Array of Talent in the Faculty.

The brilliant financial success (?) of the old Medical College has induced a number of physicians of this city to organize a rival institution. The following is the faculty: B. S. Woodward, M. D., Emeritus, professor of obstetrics and diseases of children; W. H. Gobrecht, M. D., professor of descriptive and surgical anatomy, dean; C. B. Stemen, M. D., professor of the theory and practice of medicine; W. P. Wherry, M. D., L. R. C. P. Ed., professor of physiology and clinical medicine; James Gregg, M. D., professor of principles and practice of clinical surgery; Isaac M. Rosenthal, M. D., professor of obstetrics and diseases of children; Herman Duemling, Ph. D., professor of chemistry and toxicology; R. W. Thrift, M. D., professor of therapeutics and materia medica; F. S. Grayson, M. D., professor of general pathology and clinical medicine; C. B. Stemen, M. D., professor of ophthalmology and otology; John B. Beck, M. D., professor of gynaecology and genito-urinary surgery; Samuel Anderson, M. D., professor of medical jurisprudence; Samuel C. Metcalfe, M. D., demonstrator of anatomy.

The new college will commence its preliminary course of lectures on the 23d prox., which will continue two weeks. The regular session will commence from October 6th until March 1st. The institution will be domiciled at the St. Joseph Hospital.

The old college will continue on in its triumphal course at the corner of Broadway and West Jefferson streets. Drs. Myers, Swerling, Buchman, Wood, Teal, Gilbert, Van Buskirk, Dills, Dillen and others will run the "masheen."

BREVITIES.

Market.
Jacob Wetzel is in the city.
A heavy storm passed east last night.

Typhoid fever is prevailing in Wayne township.

Frank Casso will have his opening on Saturday.

The Foster block will be under roof by September 1st.

Come down this evening; will make it pleasant for you.

A lively racket grew out of the fire yesterday afternoon.

No tidings have yet been received from John McCain.

Police court was held at Justice Ryan's office this morning.

The alley between Berry and Main streets is still in a very bad condition.

The mayor yesterday received a pass for himself and fourteen councilmen to Tiffin, O.

The Bass foundry is at present engaged in making a large engine 20x36 for the South Bend plow works.

It is no credit to the police force that they refused the usual courtesy of an escort to the minstrels yesterday.

Peter Kiser will address the old settlers of Cass county next Saturday. The scrap-book and little hatchet will figure.

Conover has recently discovered that he is the possessor of a beautiful tenor voice. Call and he will make it pleasant.

J. C. Peltier will return from Mattoon, Ill., to-night, in charge of the remains of Mrs. Mary Filcer, who died there on Tuesday.

Work on the old Jacobson building is progressing very slowly, and the continued blockade of Calhoun street is beginning to assume the proportions of a nuisance.

The Bass foundry has been obliged to make new machinery to facilitate the manufacture of castings for the Noble School Furniture Company. The demand is much greater than the supply.

Hettler was fair enough last evening, after discovering that his pet water works ordinance was defective, to acknowledge the same, and return his thanks to Chittenden for his opposition to it.

Councilman Bash stated in the council last Tuesday evening that Hettler's ordinance was dictated by the consulting engineer, J. D. Cook, whereupon the Gazette characterizes the opposition to the ordinance as unnecessary and culpable.

Thomas Kirby, one of the most prominent and wealthy citizens of Muncie, died last night, aged about seventy. He was very highly esteemed as an honest, public-spirited, liberal man. The Rev. M. Crosley, of this city, has been telegraphed for to conduct the services.

J. W. Cowell and Sarah J. Clem were the names of the happy couple who meandered down to Justice Pratt's office this morning, where William spoke the happy words which told them they were "all same one people." They hailed from Monroe township.

A very enjoyable surprise party was held at the residence of Mrs. Ross, on West Water street last evening. The affair passed off pleasantly and the joyous group dispersed, hoping that Miss Bridget Howley, and Fannie Crane, the originators of the affair, might live happy and die long.

A miscellaneous mixture of street cars, horses and a man, created a little excitement on the corner of Calhoun and Main streets this morning.

The county commissioners are in session to-day. They read the record and passed on a number of bills, which concluded their work for to-day.

Mayor Zollinger and Councilmen Mueller, Welsh and Fox have gone to Tiffin, O., to witness the formal opening of the new schoolhouse.

The county commissioners are in session to-day. They read the record and passed on a number of bills, which concluded their work for to-day.

Billy Emerson gave "Moriarty" as only he can give it, and the encore which he received showed that Billy as "Moriarty" would never get old. He responded to a second encore with his great original hit, "I feel just as happy as a big sunflower," and with his old familiar "Ho, Ho, Ho," brought down the house.

The "Cincinnati Hams" were new and novel, and were enthusiastically received, and Lake Schoolcraft was a general favorite.

Billy Emerson can always rest assured of drawing a good house in Fort Wayne.

The Gazette and Fairplay, and Standard are the originators of the affair, might live happy and die long.

A telegram was received this afternoon from Warsaw, signed by Mayor Hiram S. Biggs, Rev. W. H. Lowe and other leading citizens, indorsing "Brother" Jonathan S. Haskell, who opens at the Academy to-night, and testifying to the good work he has done in the temperance cause at Warsaw.

The brilliant financial success (?) of the old Medical College has induced a number of physicians of this city to organize a rival institution. The following is the faculty: B. S. Woodworth, M. D., Emeritus, professor of obstetrics and diseases of children; W. H. Gobrecht, M. D., professor of descriptive and surgical anatomy, dean; C. B. Stemen, M. D., professor of the theory and practice of medicine; W. P. Wherry, M. D., L. R. C. F. Ed., professor of physiology and clinical medicine; James Gregg, M. D., professor of principles and practice and clinical surgery; Isaac M. Rosenthal, M. D., professor of obstetrics and diseases of children; Herman Duemling, Ph. D., professor of chemistry and toxicology; R. W. Thrift, M. D., professor of therapeutics and materia medica; F. S. C. Grayston, M. D., professor of general pathology and clinical medicine; C. B. Stemen, M. D., professor of ophthalmology and otology; Jos. R. Beck, M. D., professor of gynaecology and genito-urinary surgery; Samuel Anderson, M. D., professor of physical diagnosis and clinical medicine; Hon. Robt. C. Bell, professor of medical jurisprudence; Samuel C. Metcalfe, M. D., demonstrator of anatomy.

The new college will commence its preliminary course of lectures on the 23d prox., which will continue two weeks. The regular session will commence from the 6th until March 1st. The institution will be domiciled at the St. Joseph Hospital.

The old college will continue on in its triumphal course at the corner of Broadway and West Jefferson streets. Drs. Myers, Sweringen, Buchman, Wood, Teal, Gilbert, Van Buskirk, Dills, Dinnan and others will run the "mashine."

BREVITIES.

Market.

Jacob Wetzel is in the city.

A heavy storm passed east last night.

Typhoid fever is prevailing in Wayne township.

Frank Casso will have his opening on Saturday.

The Foster block will be under roof by September 1st.

Come down this evening; will make it pleasant for you.

A lively racket grew out of the fire yesterday afternoon.

No tidings have yet been received from John McCain.

Police court was held at Justice Ryan's office this morning.

The alley between Berry and Main streets is still in a very bad condition.

The mayor yesterday received a pass for himself and fourteen councilmen to Tiffin, O.

A miscellaneous mixture of street cars, horses and a man, created a little excitement on the corner of Calhoun and Main streets this morning.

The Bass foundry is at present engaged in making a large engine 20x36 for the South Bend plow works.

It is no credit to the police force that they refused the usual courtesy of an escort to the minstrels yesterday.

Peter Kiser will address the old settlers of Cass county next Saturday. The scrap-book and little hatchet will figure.

Conover has recently discovered that he is the possessor of a beautiful tenor voice. Call and he will make it pleasant.

J. C. Peltier will return from Mattoon, Ill., to-night, in charge of the remains of Mrs. Mary Filcer, who died there on Tuesday.

Work on the old Jacobson building is progressing very slowly, and the continued blockade of Calhoun street is beginning to assume the proportion of a nuisance.

The Bass foundry has been obliged to make new machinery to facilitate the manufacture of castings for the Noble School Furniture Company. The demand is much greater than the supply.

Hettler was fair enough last evening, after discovering that his pet water works ordinance was defective, to acknowledge the same, and return his thanks to Chittenden for his opposition to it.

Councilman Bash stated in the council last Tuesday evening that Hettler's ordinance was dictated by the consulting engineer, J. D. Cook, whereupon the Gazette characterizes the opposition to the ordinance as unnecessary and culpable. What have Bash and the Gazette to say now that the aforesaid ordinance has turned out to be defective?

The trouble at Langohr's bakery last night was between the "lours" of the establishment, and was "bread" through a misunderstanding. Shuber thought that Reeser "knifed" a thumping, and accordingly "rolled" him over and administered a number of "crackers" on his pate. The affair didn't "pan" out as easily as anticipated and a "dough" "lorous" "melange" was the consequence. Reeser said that wasn't the "whey" to do; and no "loaf" could attack him in that manner without trouble. Hence the unpleasantry.

A very enjoyable surprise party was held at the residence of Mrs. Ross, on West Water street last evening. The affair passed off pleasantly and the joyous group dispersed, hop-

The loss at the fire on Madison street yesterday is estimated at about $250, upon which there was no insurance. The loss is nearly equally divided between A. S. Johns and Henry Rembke. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the irrepressible small boy and a box of matches. The engines did good work but the Anthony Wayne was delayed considerably from the fact that she was obliged to make steam from cold water. But when she did come she came "whooping." A section of hose was bursted.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE MEGATHERIANS.

Billy Emerson has come and gone, and the frontispiece of the minstrel-loving Fort Wayneites will be distorted by a ghastly smile for days to come, and it will be weeks before his features will resume their original classical caste; and the coming corner in the button market will be entirely owing to the Megatherians' devastating tour through the country. The people expected something big, and had made up their minds to be surprised at nothing, but they were little prepared for the pyramid of minstrelsy, which appeared as the drop curtain at the Academy rolled up, last night at half-past 8 o'clock. Five boxes of paper collars appeared on the stage, each collar around the neck of an ebony artist, were piled from the stage to the flies. Their appearance was simply stupendous, and the performance did not detract a particle from their appearance. Of the programme, nothing can be said, as it was a good one and thoroughly carried out. The Rankins, in their triple clog dance, each one accompanying himself on a banjo, was well performed and heartily applauded, while the twelve Lancashire clog dancers were perfect in their evolutions. Billy Emerson gave "Moriarty" as only he can give it, and the encore which he offered showed that Billy as "Moriarty" would never get old. He responded to a second encore with his great original hit, "I feel just as happy as a big sunflower," and, with his old familiar "Ho, Ho, Ho," brought down the house. The "Cincinnati Hams" were new and novel, and were enthusiastically received, and Luke Schoolcraft was a general favorite.

Billy Emerson can always rest assured of drawing a good house in Fort Wayne.

THE RAILROADS.

The Grand Rapids shipped 200 tons of old iron to Cincinnati to-day.

A crew on the Wabash road fell asleep last week and lay for two hours on a side track.

The pay car on the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad will arrive at 6:30 this evening.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad is driving piles for five new bridges between this point and Kendallville.

President Evans, of the Narrow Gauge, has returned from the south. He threatens to make some astounding revelations shortly.

Sam Hilliker, a Pittsburgh engineer, it is said, will change his boarding house from Holman to Baker street. It is also suggested that Mrs. Hilliker will be his landlady.

Freight on the Wabash, which has been comparatively slack for the past week, is booming up again, doubtless owing to the additional advance in freight rates, to take effect on the 25th inst.
